

Fall 2022 Conference:

So Many Books, So Little Time: How to Make More Inclusive Book Choices

November 19th, 8:30-1:30 Burlington Elementary

To register, click here: <https://forms.gle/eYZTs1WxG5ewxXQ18>

We will be raffling a complete set of primary, elementary, middle and high school Virginia Readers Choice books! Click here to see a list of titles:

<https://static1.squarespace.com/static/5ad4bc209d5abb6ff4b7d119/t/620f30037cfc0e3d752362dc/1645162499149/All+Titles+2022-2023.pdf>

Featuring Keynote Speaker: Tom Angleberger

Session: Giraffe on the Path: Creating a Culture of Kindness in your School Jungle

GIRAFFE= Give Intentional Respect and Friendship For Everyone

This session explores how to use qualities of the giraffe to promote kindness and respect within your classroom and school community.

Presenters: Steve and Code' Sizemore

Session: What Can Your Public Library Do For You?

Do you lack the resources to provide diverse, inclusive texts for your students? This session will detail how the public library system can help!

Presenters: Amber Lowery and Emily Metrock, Roanoke Valley Library Consortium

Session: Going to the Library is Like Going to the Doctor

shutterstock.com - 614895548

Not everyone needs the same treatment at the doctor's office. Some need a light treatment and some of us need more complex attention. Your doctor will provide what is needed for each individual client. We do the same in our classrooms and school libraries.

Presenter: Charles Richards